

CONTENTS

Section A. How to use this Manual

Section B. Getting Started

Peer Assisted Learning: a brief overview
What PAL is all about
About PAL for First Years
Learning to Learn
Approaches to Improving Student Learning

Section C. How to run PAL Sessions

- 1 Preparation
- 2 Starting your PAL session
- 3 Agreeing a schedule
- 4 Providing structure
- 5 Encouraging participation
- 6 Asking and redirecting questions
- 7 Gathering feedback
- 8 Closing the session and reviewing it

Section D. Your First PAL Session

A session plan to help your first PAL session run smoothly: includes guidelines on structuring the session, agreeing group norms, and notes on the main features of PAL to discuss with your PAL Group.

Section E. What to do in your PAL Sessions

Structuring Group Discussion
Suggestions for Icebreakers
36 Suggested Activities to use in your PAL sessions

Section F. Working with your PAL Group

Facilitating the Group
An effective PAL Group
Listening Skills
Stages of Group Development
Working in Cross Cultural Settings
Processes and Tools
Working with Moodle

Section G. Promoting PAL

Promoting PAL
Promotion Tools and Techniques
Attendance at PAL

Section H. Working with your PAL Course Contact and Institute PAL Manager

Guidelines for working effectively with your PAL Course Contact, School/Programme Co-ordinator and Institute PAL Manager.

Section I. Resources for different Learning Experiences

- Learning from Teaching
  - Lectures
  - Tutorials and other small group work
- Co-operative Learning
  - Self help groups and learning teams
  - Tutorial and seminar teams
  - Project and task teams
    - Eight behaviours associated with effective teamwork
    - Initial training (becoming a team)
    - Monitoring
    - Allocating roles
    - Setting the tone
    - Ground rules
    - Dividing and organising your work
    - Reviewing your progress
    - Using appropriate team methods
    - Reviewing your teamwork
    - Meetings review checklist
- Practical work
  - Laboratory experiments
  - Learning activities in computer labs
  - Case studies
  - Simulations
  - Fieldwork
  - Placements
- Solving Problems
- Writing Business Reports
- Scientific and Engineering Report Writing and Problem Solving

Section J. Materials to use with your PAL Group

- Using the GMIT Library for your research
- About GMIT Student Services
- Plagiarism – What it is and How to avoid it
- Citing References
- Developing good study habits
- Note taking
- Essay writing
- Oral presentations
- Planning your time
- Revising for exams

Section K. Forms for Planning, Review and Evaluation

- PAL Session Plan
- PAL Session Review
- Register of Attendance